

Please Post or Share with Others

Original artwork by Katie Kauffman

52nd Annual Seabeck Conference
“Visioning the Confluence of Justice & Peace”
July 2 – 5, 2010
Mark Your Calendar!

The Western Washington Fellowship of Reconciliation (WWFOR) and Oregon Fellowship of Reconciliation (OFOR) have partnered for fifty-two years to conduct one of the largest peace conferences in the Northwest. We have nationally known keynote speakers as well as numerous workshop options for those interested in gathering to discuss current peace and justice concerns in our local communities, the nation, and the world. Seabeck also offers an outstanding music program, led by folksinger Tom Rawson. Our 200 attendees represent a variety of denominations and faith traditions. Finally, we provide both child and youth educational programs to ensure learning experiences for all family members. We welcome all to join us!

This year, we are also conducting a special outreach to other faith-based peace fellowships, to build a new partnership with those who may be interested in sharing a weekend retreat with the members of WWFOR and OFOR at Seabeck. Current plans call for shared plenary and workshop offerings as well as opportunities for individual peace fellowship gatherings. We also have the capacity to house peace fellowship groups together in dedicated housing on the Seabeck campus.

Seabeck Conference Center:

Seabeck is located on the beautiful Hood Canal, fifteen miles west of Bremerton, Washington. Bedding and towels are provided to guests at the Conference Center. Family style meals are served with vegetarian options. Seabeck can also accommodate special dietary needs. Recreation opportunities include swimming, boating on the lagoon, tennis, horseshoes, ping-pong, volleyball, basketball, hiking, music, and crafts. Bring swimwear and comfortable shoes. Be prepared for wet, dry, warm, or cool weather.

Conference or Registration Information: Contact John Roy Wilson, Conference Co-Chair, at (503) 585-5436 or jrw45@comcast.net/Janet Hawkins, Conference Co-Chair, at (503) 244-7703 or janetchawkins@msn.com with questions or to request the pre-registration form. Go to www.ofor.org to download the pre-registration form.